The Navarro Chapter of U. D. C. lines of chapter work. The annual eport read by Mrs. M. L. D. Adams at this meeting showed the splendid work accomplished by local chapter, covering the welfare of the veterans, also the educational humanitarian and other phases of extension U. D. C. activities.
Following the short business session, the first vice-president intro-duced the newly elected historian for the chapter, Mrs. W. O. Wilker-son. The task of the historian is to keep alive the memories, honor the heroes and propogate the ideals that constitute the greatness of the Old South. Mrs. Wilkerson possesses great ability for this phase of work and the interesting procram rendered by her manifested a atriotic devotion to the true his ory of the Southland and its great achievements. Many interesting points concerning the reael condition and place of slavery in our nation was brought out in papers read by those taking part on the program, also the fact of our naions indebtedness to the South for her galaxy of heroes and noble statesmen.

The enjoyment of the historical program was enhanced by two beautiful violin numbers rendered by Mrs. J. K. Wood and her ac-companist, Mrs. Paul Harper, Nevcr before was the silence of the hearer broken by sweeter sounds than the tender, sympathetic tones of the violin under the master hand of Mrs. Wood and the accom-paniment of Mrs. Tarper. These two musicians are always generous to the public with their wonderful talent and much appreciated by the whole city.

The U. D. C. will meet again in business session the second Wednesday in November. REPORTER.

Now Read What 11,105* Doctors say About Lucky Strike Cigarettes Because "It's toasted"

"It was but recently, when I started to act as master of ecremonics with my band at the Paramount Theatre, that I realized how vital perfect voice condition was to a performer. I have always been a consistent smoker and, fortunately, Lucky Strikes were my favorite brand. I like their toasted flavor and, best of all, I can smoke as often as I like, without fear of irritating my voice, which is becoming a great asset in my work?

Expert in Oil Matters.

Capt. William J. McKie, whose rise to the top of the legal profesing bit of legal history, has dignified the profession of law by more than four decades of practice at Corsicana, and has earned a dis-tinction above the average as a legal expert in oil and petroleum matters. A man of outstanding matters. A man of mental attainments, McKie's success in his chosen vocation has been in just proportion to his rec-oznized merits, and both professionally and as a man he was an ornament to the Texas bar. His handling of great corporation problems, particularly the legal aspects of railroad and petroleum in-terests, won the admiration of all Weidman, Horace Bishop Douglas, who followed his career, and baritone brought him recognition as one of the foremost authorities in Texas in this branch of jurisprudence. Mr. McKie also attained prominence in the oil industry through his extensive holdings in proven fields.

William J. McKie was born near Corsicana, in Navarro county, in May, 1856, the son of Dr. B. D McKie, one of the pioneer settlers of Navarro county. As a boy Mr. county at Salado, and later attended school at Austin. After a number of years in the study of law he and Male Quartet.

Washington, Oct. 17.-With the weight of a Supreme Court decision standing against them. Albert B. Fall and Harry F. Sinclair went to trial today on charges of criminal conspiracy growing out of the famous Teapot Dome Naval oil lease

Although today's preceedings in a District of Columbia court constituted only the criminal phase of the long-drawn out fight of the government to cancel the oil lease negotiated by Fall as Secretary of the Interior, the Supreme Court a week ago in cancelling the Teapot Dome transaction expressed the opinion that the two conspired together. That opinion, however, was rendered in the civil suit and did not relate directly to the indictments which Fall and Sinclair are being tried.

Blooming Grove, Texas, Oct. 13 -The fourth annual exposition of Blooming Grove Poultry Show and Fair closed at 5 o'clock Satur day afternoon. The fair opened Thursday morning and an unusal amount of interest was shown in the exposition in this section of the county. Large crowds attended and the number of entries in every department was larger than ever

The fair opened Thursday morn ing and continued through Friday and Saturday, with interesting events each day in addition to the exhibits of poultry, farm products and livestock

The enterprise received not only the support of the merchants and business men of this city but that of the people from the surrounding communities.

There were exhibits in ever department that would do justice to a fair staged on a much larger The stadium where the fai was held was crowded to capacity with exhibite and enegial arrange ments had been made for the show ing of the livestock.

In order that we may serve you more promptly and satisfactorily and to make it more convenient for you to transact business with us, we have opened an office in Corsicana at 218 North Main Street, which will be in charge of Mr. Ted B. Ferguson as manager.

All of our business with you will be handled out of this office instead of Ennis as heretofore and you can inspect there and purchase, if you desire, all the modern electrical devices and appliances for use in the home and shop.

Our telephone numbers are L. D. 16 for long distance calls and 1206 for local calls. Please call us at any time we can be of service or furnish information. A telephone call is all that is necessary to order our service into your house if wired, or to have our representative call and give you our estimate on the cost of wiring; or demonstrate an appliance, etc.

Please remember the address and telephone mumbers:
